Congratulations,

Subject to your acceptance of the terms of this contract, you have been selected as a potential member of a Holy Trinity Athletic Team. You have demonstrated your skill in this event and, therefore, deserve an opportunity to play for your school.

Now that you have reached this stage of your athletic development where you may represent Holy Trinity High School in competition, you must be fully aware of the privilege which is yours, as well as, the responsibility that accompanies that privilege. At Holy Trinity we are proud of the accomplishment of our athletic history. It is now your task to carry on this very proud tradition.

Your skill level has made you eligible for participation in your sport. Your coach decides the technical and performance aspect of the co-curricular program but the school in conjunction with teachers and coaches may make decisions regarding your continuance with the team. We expect the following from you:

1. A Holy Trinity athlete must recognize that his or her primary function in school is to achieve academically. To remain on a Holy Trinity team you are required to maintain your individual academic standing and working to the best of your ability.
2. Attendance:
  - a. Student academic success is directly related to student tardiness, it is a requirement that student involved in extra-curricular activities attend school on a regular basis. Students must be present in school on the day of an event (practice, game, and tournament) in order to participate, unless there are extenuating circumstances, (i.e. a specialist appointment).
  - b. A student involved in extra-curricular activities with chronic lateness are in direct violation with the schools attendance policy. Athletes with excessive lateness will be removed from a team's games and practices for a period of time until this behaviour has improved.

3. Holy Trinity athletes are expected to exhibit responsible, respectful behaviours as you are representing our school. Students are reminded that sporting events are school sponsored and the rules and regulations that apply in our building apply at such events (ie. abusive language, smoking).
4. When you are in a Holy Trinity uniform, you are a representative of this school. Remember people are watching your behavior. They will not remember you, but they will remember what school you attend. Represent us well!
5. As a student athlete in our school you benefit from our extra-curricular program and from the monies raised from the entire school. Remember, this is not a right but a privilege. You are expected to participate in any fund-raising activities realizing that you will ultimately receive your fair share in benefits to your sport.
6. Any equipment or uniform which has been issued to you from the school must be returned immediately upon the conclusion of the season. Should you not comply with this, then your parents will be billed accordingly. Uniforms will be issued by the athletic director when athlete's contracts, emergency contact forms are returned to your coach.
7. Parents are responsible for providing transportation for their child to and from games. Students are not permitted to transport students. Teachers, volunteers and parents should not transport passengers on school related trips unless they have permission to carry passengers insurance from their personal insurance company. $1,000,000.00 minimum liability is recommended.

If you are willing to accept the above terms, then we will be pleased to have you represent Holy Trinity High School in athletic competition. By signing this document, you indicate your willingness to abide by the terms outlined herein and recognize that the Administration of the School has the final say in your participation in school related athletics. This contract is in effect from September to June of the current school year.
